

Gentlemen:

Please do not weaken the New Jersey Do Not Call Law. It should not be amended to make it weaker. If it is amended, the law should be done so as to increase it's power, such as by increasing the fines for marketers. People who have private telephone lines are paying extra for the luxury of privacy. Marketers calling such telephone numbers are an invasion to costly privacy.